

HARRY'S

— OYSTER BAR & SEAFOOD —

Back in 1897, Harry (call me "Dock") Dougherty opened Dock's Oyster House in Atlantic City and quickly became well known for his simply prepared and reasonably priced oyster stews, fried fish and raw bar. Adhering to these principles while keeping pace with the changing times, Dock's has continued in operation for over a century and remains one of the most popular and highly acclaimed restaurants in Atlantic City.

Harry's great-grandson Frank and his wife Maureen (who also own the Knife & Fork in Atlantic City) bring you Harry's Oyster Bar & Seafood, designed to recreate the old time oyster bar and seafood house of Harry Dougherty's day. Harry's features high quality, fresh seafood at reasonable prices. Modern touches include the numerous flat screen TVs so you will never miss your favorite team and live music in the courtyard in the summer.

The centerpiece of the restaurant is the multi-tiered raw bar featuring a selection of oysters along with clams, shrimp, crabmeat, lobster, ceviche and tuna tartare. House specialties include a classic Lobster Roll, Harry's Clam Bake and Mahi Mahi Soft Tacos.

Relax, enjoy the view, and be prepared to have One Shell of a Good Time!
