

HARRAH'S CHEROKEE HOSTS THIRD ANNUAL SENIOR SHOWCASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Cherokee, N.C., March 27, 2015 - More than 130 high school seniors attended the third annual Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort Senior Showcase in March. Students from Cherokee, Swain, Murphy, Robbinsville, and Smoky Mountain high schools attended the event to learn about the different career paths and job opportunities at Harrah's Cherokee.

"The Senior Showcase is a chance for us to show all the opportunities that are available here," Tara Reed, Harrah's Cherokee Talent Development manager, said. "We want to encourage students to graduate, get a degree, then come back to work with us. I think a lot of them were surprised to see what a fun and exciting work atmosphere we have."

This year, the event's theme was "The Game of Life." Students from each school were split up into 10 groups and talked with representatives from each Harrah's Cherokee department.

Area high school students learn about Casino Marketing career paths with team members during the Harrah's Cherokee Senior Showcase.
