

CAESARS

ENTERTAINMENT®

Dear Partner,

We have some exciting news we would like to share. Eldorado Resorts, Inc. has completed the previously announced acquisition of Caesars Entertainment Corporation, creating the largest gaming company in the United States: Caesars Entertainment, Inc. Under a new logo and branding, the combined company will operate over 55 destinations worldwide and will continue to trade on the NASDAQ under the symbol CZR.

The Caesars Entertainment, Inc. Strategic Sourcing Team is now led by Matthew Miele, Senior Vice President of Procurement and Strategic Sourcing. Existing Eldorado Resorts, Inc. and Caesars Entertainment Corporation agreements, contracts and programs will continue as part of the new company's normal course of business for the immediate future. In addition, existing accounts payable terms, mailing addresses and processes will remain unchanged until further notice.

Over time, agreements, contracts, accounts payable processing and programs are expected to be combined in order to achieve the necessary economies of scale. The Strategic Sourcing Team will continue to work towards previously announced goals of securing synergistic savings, improved processes, increased efficiencies and the growing of diversity spend. These will contribute to a superior experience that all guests of Caesars Entertainment, Inc. have come to appreciate and expect.
