10. BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL RULES

- a. Professional baseball wagers are accepted in the following manner:
 - i. Action: Team against team regardless of the starting pitcher.
 - ii. One Specific Pitcher: A wager on or against one specific pitcher regardless of the other starting pitcher. The specified pitcher must start, or the wager is deemed “no action”.
 - iii. Both Specified Pitchers: A wager that specifies both starting pitchers. Any variation constitutes “no action.”
 - iv. NOTE: Each team’s starting pitcher is defined, for wagering purposes, as the pitcher who throws the initial pitch.
 - v. In the event of a change in pitcher(s) prior to the start of a baseball game, money line odds may be adjusted. If one scheduled pitcher starts against an unscheduled pitcher, “action” and “specified pitcher” wagers will be computed at the opening price established with the new pitcher.
- b. For all non-US professional leagues and college baseball and softball, wagers are “action” regardless of starting pitchers. “Totals” and “run line” wagers are subject to the same game length rules as professional US baseball. The bottom team that is listed, does not necessarily bat last.
- c. For all specific inning or combined inning (e.g., first 5 innings) wagering on baseball, the specified inning or period must have been completed for action. For example, a wager on a run being scored in the 5th Inning where a game is postponed in the 7th is action; whereas if the game were to be called at any time during the 5th, the wager is void (regardless if a run has already been scored).
- d. When wagering on baseball “totals” or “run lines”, the game must go at least the regulation nine innings (eight and one-half if the home team is ahead) for a scheduled nine-inning game and seven innings (six and one-half innings if the home team is ahead) for a scheduled seven-inning game.
 - i. If the game goes past regulation innings into extra innings and is subsequently suspended or postponed, it is considered to have “action” and the winner and loser shall be determined by the score at the time the game is called/suspended. In the case where the home team does not complete their turn at bat in the bottom half of an extra-inning game, the score reverts to the previous full inning of play, unless the home team scores to tie the game, in which then the score will be determined at the point of suspension.

- ii. When wagering pre-match on a baseball “total” or “run line”, pitchers will be automatically listed. A pitcher change before the game constitutes “no action”.
- e. For pre-season/exhibition and pro baseball All-Star games, games are “action” if the league determines a result, no matter what the rule changes are pertaining to the individual games.

- g. For baseball first inning wagers, the first inning must be fully completed for there to be “action”; otherwise, wagers are refunded. In the case of a pitching change, first inning yes-no run scored bets associated with that pitching matchup will be considered “no action”.
- h. For daily baseball grand slam and no-hitter proposition wagers, all wagers constitute “action” regardless of the number of games completed that day. For the yes-no no-hitter proposition, the no-hitter must be at least nine innings to be considered “action”.
- i. For the Grand Salami (total runs scored in all games that day), all scheduled games must go at least 8½ or 9 innings for there to be “action”.
- j. For total bases propositions, only hits count towards this wager. A single counts as one, a double as two, a triple as three and a home run as four. Reaching base by any other means (walk, hit by pitch, etc.) does not count towards this wager.

 - i. If the game goes past regulation innings into extra innings and is subsequently suspended or postponed, it is considered to have “action” and the winner and loser shall be determined by the score at the time the game is called/suspended. In the case where the home team does not complete their turn at bat in the bottom half of an extra-inning game, the score reverts to the previous full inning of play, unless the home team scores to tie the game, in which then the score will be determined at the point of suspension.
- l. For the World Baseball Classic or any other games that are called due to the mercy rule, “totals” and “run lines” are considered “action”.

- m. Unless odds are quoted for a tie, any market where the result is a wagering tie, those bets will be refunded.
- n. For pro baseball regular season wins wagers, please check customer sheets for the minimum required games to be played for "action".

- d. In the event of a draw, wagers on who will win are "no action".
- e. All straight win wagers will have "action" regardless of any changes in weight class, scheduled length of the bout, or championship sanction unless otherwise stipulated. All round, knock-out ("K.O.") or decision proposition wagers are "no action" if the scheduled length of the bout is changed.
- f. On K.O. proposition wagers, K.O. includes knockout, technical knockout, disqualification, technical decision, or any other stoppage.
- g. On decision proposition wagers, "decision" means that the fight result is determined by the result of the scorecards.
- h. In the event of a fight being declared a "no-contest", all wagers (including totals) on that fight will be considered "no-action", regardless of when the fight is stopped.

Exacta payout odds limited to 299-1. In the event of a scratched horse, the wager will be refunded.

TRIFECTAS

Trifecta payout odds limited to 1000-1. In the event of a late scratch, the wager will be refunded for that combination. Dead heats are handled as follows:

- Dead Heat for Win: You must have both horses in the dead heat for win along with the show horse to have a winning trifecta. In the event you had the three horses boxed, you have the trifecta payoff twice. The same would apply to dead heats for place and show.
- Dead Heat for Place: The winning horse with both place horses.
- Dead Heat for Show: Win horse, place horse, and one of the show horses.

. Payoff Limits

Management reserves the right to increase or decrease payoff odds limits. If the payoff odds limits are increased or decreased, the revised odds limits will be posted in the race book prior to accepting wagers on a race with revised payout odds limits.
