- Each participant may enter once per promotional day.

- Winning selections will be awarded promotional points as follows: WIN = 5 points; PLACE = 3 points; SHOW = 1 point.
- All promotional points will be accumulated weekly until the end of the contest at which time a Grand Prize winner will be determined based on the highest number of promotional points accumulated during the 10-week contest ending Saturday, April 10, 2021.
- If there is a dead heat for WIN in one of the contest races, the contestants will share the total points accumulated for each finishing position. For example, if there is a dead heat for win, both horses would earn four points each (5 for win plus 3 for place = 8 points total, split evenly among the horses involved for 4 points each).
- If there is a dead heat for PLACE in one of the contest races, both horses would receive two points.
- If there is a dead heat for SHOW in one of the contest races, both horses would earn 1/2 point each.
- A list of weekly leaders will be displayed by Wednesday of each week of contest.

- The Grand Prize winner will account for the first place local prize at the participating location.
- If there is more than one Grand Prize winner (a tie for the largest number of cumulative promotional contest points), first and second place prize monies will be added together and divided equally between the winners. If there is a tie for second through fifth place, the monies will be added together for the tied positions and divided evenly among the players.
