

FORTUNE PAI GOW POKER

Fortune Pai Gow Poker is played with 52 cards plus a Joker. The Joker is used to complete any Straight or Flush. If not it will be used as an Ace. The first set of cards will be delivered randomly according to the number generator. Then the dealer should compare their hand against the player's hand to determine if it wins, loses or ties. Five percent commission on all winning wagers. Banker wins copy hands.

A PAI GOW POKER WAGER WINS IF:

Both the High hand and the Low hand of the player are ranked higher than the dealer's High and Low hand.

A PAI GOW POKER WAGER LOSES IF:

- The High or Low hand is identical to the corresponding hand of the dealer's and the other hand is ranked lower than the dealer's.
- A Pai Gow wager loses if the dealer's High hand and Low hand are higher than the player's.
- If the player's High hand is lower than the Low hand that is considered a Foul hand.

A PAI GOW POKER WAGER ties IF:

One hand is lower than the dealer's and one hand is higher than the dealer's.

NOTE: If a Pai Gow Poker wager is a tie, the dealer shall return the Pai Gow Poker wager to the player.
