HIGH HAND RULES

- Must be playing at a jackpot eligible game.
- Must win the pot with Aces full of Deuces or better to qualify during qualifying times.
- Minimum of 4 players dealt in at the start of the hand.
- Must use both hole cards and must be the best five card hand to qualify. On Sundays one card plays..
- First payout is the time frame after the starting hour for a qualifying hand.
- Must be $10 in pot or more for High Hand and $20 in the pot for insta High Hand.
- Must beat current High Hand (except during Insta High Hand). Ties will not qualify.
- Aces full of deuces is the minimum qualifier to win, except during $500 Insta High Hand.
- A player is eligible if there is a split pot with another player(s) at the same table and uses both hole cards to make the best five card hand.
- If two players at the same table have the same best five cards and qualify, they will split the high hand payout.
- Final payout is on the hour, if the supervisor suspects a player is deliberately stalling in order to receive a high hand or players are colluding to make sure the pot is over the qualification amount, the player may not be awarded the payout.
- Stalling is considered cheating and will not be tolerated.
- Must have Caesars Rewards card and valid ID to win.
- The time that the final action is (cards tabled) completed in a hand will be used to determine the qualifying period for which the hand shall qualify. If necessary, a supervisor will use Surveillance to get an official time. The time shown on the high hand clock will determine the payout period. If Surveillance cannot determine a clear winner between two high hands with completed action at the same time, the players will split the payout.
- Management reserves the right to cancel or alter this promotion at any time. This promotion may be postponed, rescheduled, or cancelled for the day and/ or the value reduced in the event of major weather storms or other major events.
- Winner must show a valid I.D. and Caesars Rewards card to collect winnings. Residents of foreign countries without a U.S. tax treaty will be subject to withholding. Winners are responsible for any United states federal, state or local taxes and/or government fees that may be imposed in connection with the acceptance of the prize.
- Any circumstances not covered in the rules will be decided on by a supervisor or above and will be final.
